I. Old Business

a. Old Voting Precinct Building Update

Attorney Doug Kidd has been in touch with the church legal building, and they will be back in touch with the city about possibly deed it back to the city.

II. New Business

a. DDA Business/McDuffie Project

The DDA filled their 2 open seats with Councilmember Steve Boswell and Christina Cotton. The DDA would like the council to discuss the main street coordinator position at the retreat.

The McDuffie project is the façade lot; or 10 & 14 N Main Street. They will have to take the façade down due to structural issues to build their new building and that is what they are seeking council approval for.

b. Library Gutters

The library is having gutters that were torn down during the ice storm replaced. They would like to have the entire building completed. The city will get bids on the project.

c. Department Head Update

The library had a pre-construction meeting, and Maysville park will be used, when possible, for construction delays/closures in summer reading programs. The library egg hunt will be on the 28th from 11-1.

Public Works/Water Sewer gave an update on projects completed.

Chief gave an update on the Police Department.
